

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

The Applicant thanks the Examiner for the Office Action, made final, dated November 18, 2005.

The Examiner's objection to claims 1-18 is noted. With respect, the Examiner has misconstrued the terms "clip" and "support" in the claims. In order to clarify the Examiner's understanding of the claims, the Applicant has amended the term "support" in the claim to "shaft", in reference to the shaft 1610 (Figure 16) that supports the roll of print media. The term "clip" has been amended to "support molding", in reference to the support molding 1614. The Examiner will appreciate from a reading of the term clip, and its definition through the dependent claims, that the clip of the claims is analogous to the support molding 1614 of the description. There is however an exception, that being claim 12 which defines the clip 1414 which secures the casing in its closed position.

In light of these amendments, the Applicant contends that the application is in order for allowance.

Very respectfully,
